Kingston Welcomes New City Manager David L. Bolling

Kingston's new City Manager David L. Bolling began his position on June 3, 2013. He and wife Jennifer, son Carter and daughter Caroline are returning to this area after spending a year in Newcastle, Maine where he served as the Town Administrator. Prior to moving to Newcastle he served as the City Manager of Oliver Springs for six years and on the Anderson County Commission for four years.

Mr. Bolling 10 years of both public and private sector management experience and plans to be responsive to the needs of citizens and to be responsible for the utilization of the resources they provide.

WELCOME

A Message from Mr. Bolling

On behalf of my wife Jennifer and our two children, Carter and Caroline, please allow me to express how excited we are to be in Kingston! Having grown up just up the road in Clinton, Kingston has always been in my "backyard". As such, it's great to be home.

My father was County Executive in Anderson County for 20 years and I feel truly blessed that he passed on to me his love for East Tennessee, and his belief that we all have an obligation to do our part to help make our home the very best it can be.

Alex Haley had a saying that I'm very fond of, and try to apply to my daily life; "Find the good and praise it". There is so much good to say about this wonderful town. I can't think of a town with as rich a history and as bright a future. Its' been a few years since I was a kid, more than I care to admit, and it's amazing to see how far you've come in that time. The hard work of many people over the years has resulted in a vibrant community that is, in my opinion, second to none. I'm so appreciative to have the opportunity to play a part in continuing that tradition.

I've already met so many wonderful people and I'm anxious to get to know more of you as my family and I get settled in. Please know that my door is always open, whether you have a problem, question, or just want to stick your head in and say hello.

I'm honored to be your City Manager, and I look forward to working with you for many years to come.

Memphis Are You Ready for This?

Mayor Troy Beets and Councilmen Tony Brown, John Byrkit, Norman Sugarman and Don White along with City Manager David Bolling are pictured in the lobby of the Memphis Marriott Downtown Hotel on their arrival for the Annual TML Conference. Spouses attending were First Lady Carolyn Beets, Jeanie Brown, Jan Sugarman and Jennifer Bolling.

Rumor has it the City of Kingston received an award during the Awards Ceremony on June 25th. More info on that later!

Happy Birthday Mr. Maynard

On June 5, 2013, Willie Gordon, who headed up the renovation of the city hall building in Ladd Landing sponsored a cookout/birthday celebration for Dick Maynard, whose assistance in floor space planning was invaluable to the city, and also for his and Tim Clark's employees who have done duty well outside their job descriptions during this process.

Park & Recreation employee Chris Boswell is working day and night to finish pulling phone lines to expedite the move to the new building; and Police Department employees have painted their area and are now busy putting furniture together for the big day. Former employee Cody Hazelwood is installing the sound/recording system in the new Council Chamber.

Personal Notes, Etc.

- Wastewater Treatment Plant employee Tony Workman's wife Amy is still valiantly fighting cancer. She is having trouble keeping pain under control.
- Water Department employee David Loy's wife Teresa continues her battle with cancer. David had shoulder surgery on June 10th and should be back to work before long.
- Water Treatment Plant employee David Banks Father Jessie passed away on June 6th.

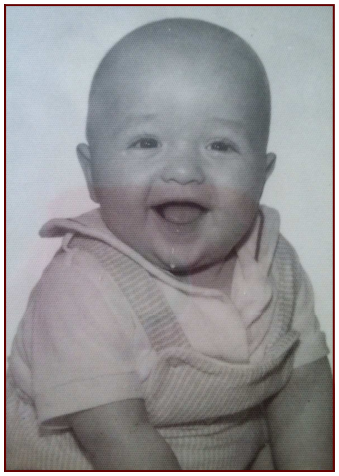
Please keep these folks and their families in your prayers!

Guess Who!



Duck, duck, goose? Why no! It's a flock of chickens! Ha! Ha!

Mayor Beets Attends Knoxville Celebration of a Brand New 48kW Solar PV System at the Zoo

In May Kingston Mayor Troy Beets joined a group of Knoxville's most influential personalities at the Knoxville Zoo including Knoxville Mayor Madeline Rogero to celebrate the installation of their 48kW solar PV System. This project was accomplished through a partnership between the city, the Zoo staff and Board of Directors and the Wampler family.

Finally! Our Streets Will Be Clean Again!

Councilmen John Byrkit and Don White look over the new "street sweeper" that will be delivered for use in the city after July 1st. Those citizens who have been bagging leaves will be so happy this Fall!

Don't let your worries get the best of you.

Remember, Moses started out as a basket case.

Soak Up Summer's Goodness

PARTNERS FOR HEALTH

Summertime offers an array of activities to help you burn calories while having fun. With a grill fired up, it can also help you get your ideal intake of veggies (and fruits)—at least 5.5 cups per day. What new things will you try for your health and well-being? Use these starter ideas for help making a plan.

Explore new activities.

- Water sports like canoeing, kayaking or white water rafting
- Try a water aerobics class or take a swim
- A high or low ropes course
- Play a game of catch with a football, Frisbee or baseball
- Hike at a nearby park or involve the whole family and schedule a family walk
- Backyard games like badminton or volleyball
- Take a bike ride or a family bike ride.

Shop for these yummy in-season treats.

- Berries
- Grapefruit
- Melons
- Tomatoes
- Corn
- Green beans
- Summer quash
- Zucchini

For more, visit the USDA's website. If you plan on grilling these veggies, consider adding some fresh fish or chicken as well. It's a healthy alternative to the usual burgers.

If you keep doing what you're doing, you'll keep getting what you're getting. Maybe it's time to get out of your rut and find a new path. God will help you change direction and accomplish new goals that align with His will. Don't settle for the mediocrity of an unplanned life. Start living intentionally.
