Meet the Council

Council Member

Dates of Service

12/1/2014—11/30/2018

The following questions were sent to the Mayor and Council Members. Answers from Vice Mayor Randy Childs follow each question.

1. What made you decide to run for office?

Several people asked me about running and I thought it would give me the opportunity to put my arguing skills to work!

2. What do you think are the two most important issues facing the City of Kingston?

Infrastructure and economic growth.

3. If you could accomplish one thing during your time in office, what would it be and why?

Bringing business to Kingston to prevent tax increases.

4. As an elected official, what would you like to say to the citizens reading this (anything goes)?

Please don't put complaints and questions on Facebook and social media. Come to the Council meetings to be sure your voice is heard.

LIBRARY RECEIVES GRANT!

On May 19th Secretary of State Tre Hargett presented a grant to the Kingston City Library in the amount of $9,900. During his presentation he pointed out that, "Libraries aren't just for books anymore." Senator Ken Yager also attended and congratulated local officials for their work in securing this grant which will provide our citizens with better access to information. Rep. Kent Calfee expressed his pleasure that funds provided by the Library and Archives chose our library as it will provide important training and technology that will benefit future generations of our citizens.

TENNESSEE'S INNOVATION CORRIDOR

On June 2, 2017, a group of government officials/ representatives from the counties of Anderson, Roane and the cities of Clinton, Kingston, and Oak Ridge met at the Guard Shack as you enter Oak Ridge for a ceremony acknowledging the Tennessee General Assembly's decision to officially designate Highways 58/95/61 between I-40 Exit 356 in Kingston and I-75 Exit 122 in Clinton as Tennessee's Innovation Corridor. The first of nine signs designating this corridor was installed at the Guard Shack. (Picture courtesy of Roane County News)
