The Kingston City Library has been awarded funding for a new computer center. Details are being finalized but we do know the program is based on standard USDA Rural Development population requirements. The grants range from $13,000 to $20,000 depending on local need and availability of existing resources.

The Library will be required to offer a minimum of 80 computer classes over a two-year period ranging from basic computing skills to job searching, etc.

Hopefully the new lab will be online as early as the first of 2011.

“Atta Boys!”

Water Department employees Robbie Humphreys, Ed Roberts and Chuck Moore received certificates of appreciation from Mayor Beets during the April 13 City Council meeting for achieving a grade of 99 on the 2010 Sanitary Survey from the State of Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation.

Donald Stout says “Goodbye” to Kingston

Employees stopped by to give best wishes to Donald Stout and to thank him for 22 years of outstanding service to the city.

Mayor Beets presented Donald with a certificate of appreciation. You can tell by Tim Clark’s expression how he feels in seeing Donald leave—more than sad!

A New Sugarman!

Alexander Louis Sugarman made his appearance weighing in at 5 pounds 1-1/2 ounces and measuring 17-1/2 inches long. Rumor has it he looks like Steve. Check out the pictures to the right—that must mean he looks like our Councilman Sugarman too!

Guess Who

Four-month old Elias, Tim Clark's newest grandson, is pictured on the right. Elias was born on December 3 and hadn't developed this wonderful personality in the pictures we had then.

By BRODY JONES
Rhea Newspapers

Sophomore Lindsey Fadnek continues to pile on her aggressive resume as she pitched a one-hitter with 17 strikeouts for the Coalfield Lady Jackets Monday night en route to an 8-0 victory over the Oliver Springs Lady Bobcats.

Fadnek would strike out the side in the top of the first inning before Coalfield went up to bat and took an early 4-0 lead with RBIs from Megan Soelman, Andrea Foster, and Erica Foster with Hannah Melhorn stealing home.

Fadnek struck out the side again in the top of the second then Chelsea Davis got an RBI single in the bottom of the second inning to make the score 5-0.

All was quiet until the bottom of the fourth inning when Kaylee Watson and Megan Soelman each had RBI doubles to boost the lead to 7-0.

Things cooled off until the bottom of the sixth inning when Soelman drove in an RBI double to wrap up the game with the 8-0 Coalfield win.

The Jackets were led at the plate by Soelman (2-4, 2 RBIs, 3 RBIs), Andrea Foster (2-3, 1 RB, 1 RBI) and Chelsea Davis (2-2, 1 RBI).

Fadnek (CG, 17 Ks, 1 hit, 2 walks) racked up the win for the Lady Jackets.

Oliver Springs got their lone hit off the bat of Shanna McCall (1-2, 1 RBI).

Brittany Galagher (CG, 9 hits, 3 Ks, 3 walks) was tallied with the loss for Oliver Springs.

Coalfield and Oliver Springs played again Tuesday at Oliver Springs' Arrowhead Park.
