

Kingston Country Fair

The 3rd Annual Kingston Country Fair was a huge success this year thanks to the planning and hard work of the Parks & Recreation Department staff. If any of you tried to gain access to Fort Southwest Point on Saturday, October 4th, you know what I mean. Traffic did slow down a little on Sunday but that day was successful as well. Plans are underway to make even more improvements for next year—including in parking.

F.O.P. MOTORCYCLE RIDE

On September 27, 2008, F.O.P. Lodge 69 sponsored a ride to raise funds for their fellow fallen officers beginning across from the Kingston City Hall and ending with a cookout at Fort Southwest Point. Kingston City Councilman Brant Williams and City Manager Jim Pinkerton and his wife Wanda participated in the ride along with Fire Chief Willie Gordon and Police Lt. Gary Nelson and his wife Beth. Several Kingston Police Officers and Sheriff's Department Officers led the 100-mile ride.
