

MERRY CHRISTMAS

“For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.”

A cool ride for Kingston’s Mayor Tim Neal in the Christmas Parade.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Work on the new pavilion at the Gravel Pit is coming right along! Beautiful addition to the Watts Bar lakefront!

Firemen saved two pet cats from a house fire on December 1st and hopefully made the owner’s Christmas a little less sad.

Department News

Kingston Firefighters teach fire safety at Kingston Elementary School during Career Day. Looks like they enjoyed it as much as the students!

Councilman White gets in on the action building the new pavilion at the Gravel Pit along with prisoners from Roane County.

Happy New Year!

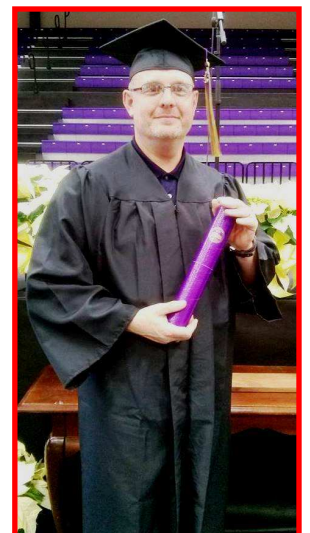

Sonny Hunter was recognized as the Parks & Rec Volunteer of the Year. He was first involved with the city in 1991 on their Board and was hired as an employee a couple of years ago.

Participants for the 2015 Candy Cane Run line up in front of the Kingston Community Center.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Investigator Keith Kile has worked a full time demanding job to provide for his family, pastored a church, attended college full-time and kept up with his daughters' busy softball/social schedules the last few years. On December 5th he graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal justice. In addition he volunteered to coach football for the Middle School this year and announced for Little League Games on Saturdays. Way to go!!!

10 But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. 11 Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. 12 This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."
