Brighten Someone's Day in a Small Way

Every day, you pass countless people on the roadways, in grocery aisles, halls at work, and elsewhere. You may never know them or what they are going through. But a single friendly gesture can completely turn around their day. And you have the power to do that.

6 small, random ways to brighten someone's day

1. Smile and say hello to everyone today. We all like to be noticed.
 2. Give someone a break. Take on a family member's chores.
 3. Make someone laugh. Share a funny video or your favorite joke.
 4. Write unexpected thank you notes. Give them to a co-worker, friend or a loved one.
 5. Donate used books to a library. Share the gift of a great story.
 6. Hold the door open. A polite and thoughtful act especially on a cold or rainy day.
- Plus, doing something kind for someone else can make you happier.
