Department News

Water Department Superintendent Mike Jolly reports his staff is repairing broken water and sewer lines during our bitterly cold and snowy weather.

Public Works Director Tim Clark reports his crews are staying busy trying to keep our roads safe with all the snow.

Fire Chief Willie Gordon's fire-fighters remain on the alert as the bitterly cold weather is a major reason for fires due to space heater, etc.

Police Chief Jim Washam's officers have been busy during the inclement weather as well.

Parks and Recreation Director Rick Ross and his fellow employees are getting ready to say goodbye to one of their co-workers, Mike Woody, who plans to retire on February 27th. Most of their work this month has been inside the Community Center due to the inclement weather.

Finance Director Carolyn Brewer is still knee-deep in number crunching with Mr. Bolling in preparation for the budgets for fiscal years 2015/2016.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Proud City employee and Papa Daniel Bredwell holds his new son, Neyland Tucker Bredwell. Tucker was born on the 9th of February weighing 7 pounds, 9 ounces and measuring 20 inches long.

We would like to thank our Kingston City manager, David Bolling for running a salt truck during the snow. David, we appreciate your help and willingness to do everything you can to make the City of Kingston a great and safe place to be...even when it means being out helping us clear these roads! Thank you!

Farewell Party for Mike Woody

City employees said Goodbye to Mike Woody on Friday, February 27th at his retirement party at Kingston City Hall. Mike worked for the city for 18-1/2 years beginning as a purchase officer and for a number of years as the Director of Fort Southwest Point. Mike will be returning to the Fort on special occasions to “fire” the cannon. Good luck in your retirement Mike—you will be missed.
