

Kingston Receives an Award for Solar Project

During the Annual East Tennessee Development District Banquet on June 5th at the Museum of Appalachia, the City of Kingston received an award for their foresight in planning and pursuing development of a solar farm within the city.

Major Storm Hits Kingston

On June 10th a major storm wreaked havoc in downtown Kingston and the surrounding area. Power was off in several areas for 12 plus hours. Sitting in my car behind City Hall with tree limbs hitting and actually swaying in the wind was as frightened as I can ever remember being during a storm. Trees were down—some on house and cars, roofs were blown off and traffic was a mess for hours; but in comparison to other areas in our country we were extremely blessed. It could have been much worse.
