The first rule of holes: When you are in one, stop digging.

He lifted me out of the slimy pit...he set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand. He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God.

—Psalm 40:2,3 NIV

Meet the Council

Mayor

Dates of Service

1995—1997

1999—2003

2007—2014

12/1/2014—11/30/2018

The following questions were sent to the Mayor and Council Members. Answers from Mayor Tim Neal follow each question.

1. What made you decide to run for office?

I felt that I could make a difference in our city.

2. What do you think are the two most important issues facing the City of Kingston?

Economic growth (both business and residential growth).

3. If you could accomplish one thing during your time in office, what would it be and why?

To improve on our parks and around our lakefront. Very few cities have such a wonderful lakefront and we need to continue to improve on it.

4. As an elected official, what would you like to say to the citizens reading this (anything goes)?

It is an honor to be Mayor of our great city and I will continue to work hard for the citizens.

GETTING READY FOR THE 4TH

New sidewalks line the waterfront at City Park along with new playground equipment. See the event schedule below—Hope to see you on the 4th!

Fourth of July Facts

- John Hancock was the first man to sign the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. Most others signed the document on August 2, 1776.
- President Calvin Coolidge was born on the Fourth of July.
- Presidents John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, and James Monroe all died on the Fourth of July
- The Fourth of July became a legal federal holiday in 1870 and was reaffirmed by Congress in 1938.
- In 1777, Congress encouraged fireworks as a way to celebrate the first anniversary of the signing and some were ignited over Philadelphia. The day was also commemorated with bonfires and bells.
- When the Declaration was signed there were about 2.5 million people living in the United States.
- The first newspaper to print the Declaration of Independence was the Pennsylvania Evening Post.
- The first Fourth of July celebration in the White House was held by President Thomas Jefferson.
