

GRAVEL PIT PAVILION DEDICATION

On October 21st Kingston officials, including Mayor Tim Neal, Vice Mayor Tony Brown, Council Members Sarah Humphreys, Norm Sugarman, John Byrkit and Don White met with Senator Ken Yager, Representative Kent Calfee and TVA Representative Bert Robinson; not only for the dedication of this long awaited improvement to our lakefront, but also to congratulate Parks & Recreation Director Rick Ross, Public Works Director Tim Clark, Fire Chief Willie Gordon and Police Chief Jim Washam for their assistance in making it happen. Congratulations on a job well done! (Additional pictures of employees involved on page 3.)

FINALLY—WE HAVE BOAT SLIPS!

The boat slips made it to the dock in Kingston at approximate 5 p.m. on October 25th. Council will be busy for the next couple months making decisions regarding use.

These wonderful additions to our lakefront were made possible by funding from TVA as a result of the 2008 ash spill.
